Itinerary

Day

Cairo Shopping

Enjoy a Cairo day tour to the best Cairo shopping markets after your arrival. Your tour guide will pick you up from your hotel to visit Cairo's shopping landscape. After having a walk in Cairo, you will be taken to different and famous local shops and boutiques by your tour guide, from where you can buy authentic and locally made products. Your guide will offer you expert advice on finding the best local products during your Egypt trip and how to get hidden treasures for shopping. He can introduce you to contemporary fashion and crafts as well as regional ones during your visit to Cairo.

The Papyrus Institute

Start your Cairo day tour in a Papyrus Institute and learn about the very ancient Egyptian craftsmanship of making papyrus paper, which is the world's very first paper form. You will see how skilled artisans demonstrate this and browse hand-painted papyrus artwork, the perfect souvenir that reflects rich Egyptian heritage.

The Palace Aromatherapy Oil

Your next destination will be the store that sells natural aromatherapy and perfumes, where they will explain to you how pure essential oils are extracted—these oils are used in perfumes, massage oils, and natural remedies. You might catch a glimpse of a demonstration of the use of these oils in ancient Egyptian rituals and shop for some exquisite natural beauty products while you are there. These shops are mostly near the Pyramids, and you can get a real taste of Egyptian luxury from some of the captivating fragrances that are offered, such as lotus, sandalwood, and jasmine.

Egyptian cotton store

Visit a famous Egyptian cotton store for premium-quality cotton fabrics, clothing, and linens. A product made of Egyptian cotton has a special softness and durability that makes it a lovely present or a personal luxury. Egypt is known for producing high-quality cotton, and the country lives up to its reputation by including an Egyptian Cotton Store on the Egypt tour itineraries.

Try the Egyptian Food

Enjoy your delicious journey through Egypt's culinary delights by dining at a local restaurant, where a variety of dishes, including koshari, grilled meats, and fresh seafood, are served with friendly service.

Free Time for Shopping

After that, you will have some free time for a leisurely stroll at a bazaar, which could attract your eyes with beautiful stalls offering handmade crafts, jewelry, pottery, and authentic souvenirs. At the end of your Cairo day tour, your guide will take you back to your hotel to head to the Cairo airport after the full tour of the markets and boutiques.
