Egyptian Civilization Museum Tour

After the delightful morning meal at the hotel, you will be escorted by our professional guide in a spacious private car to start your Egypt tour to the Egyptian Museum of Civilization.

This museum is located in Fustat, Cairo. The museum showcases different periods of Egypt's civilization, which is more than 5,000 years old. The first thing that welcomes attention is the display of royal mummies, where a visitor can see the bodies of some of the well-known pharaohs and queens, including Ramses II and Hatshuetsut. The guide will go into more detail about the practice of mummification, the significance of practices related to the dead and beliefs about life after death, and the most revered beliefs of the ancient Egyptians that deal with spiritual issues—that is, the idea of the afterlife.

Afterward, visit the main hall of the museum, wherein wonderful collections of statues, special forms of funerary possessions and even regular objects are on display, providing information about the ancient Egyptian way of life. Examples of the objects featured are paintings and artifacts such as beads, tools, and containers of various images made by the Egyptians in different periods, which afforded an appreciation of their customs and artistry.

The programs will likewise take you to the interactive sections of the museum, where you can better explore ancient Egypt's history more energetically. They will enable visitors to enlightenment about the various aspects of the simple life and the mythology of Egypt, which will make it to be of informative order as well as captivating.

At the end of the NMEC visit, our driver will take you back to your place of staying at the hotel.
