

8-Day Budget Egypt Tours to Cairo, Aswan and Luxor with Nile Felucca

📍 Cairo, Aswan, Luxor.

Duration	Tour type	Group size	Runs
 8 Days	 Budget Tour	 10	 Everyday

Overview

Have your 8-day Egypt tour be spent traditionally across Cairo, Aswan, and Luxor, and also on the Nile cruise in this good value package, determined as a junior player of Budget Egypt Tours. This affordable Egypt vacation is surpassing all potential itineraries concerning Egypt and its most famous tourist attractions for tourists. When in Cairo, the highlights include a visit to the magnificent pyramids, the Sphinx, the Egyptian Museum's remarkable collection, and a tour of the city's great historical sites. Proceeding farther south to Aswan, one of the highlights of our Budget Egypt Tours, visit the delightful Philae Temple and enjoy the serene ambiance of the Nubian culture. The felucca boat offers a calm sojourn as it glides down the Nile River, offering some of the most breathtaking views and moments ever traced from culture. Your road then heads to Luxor, not just one of the greatest open-air museums worldwide but also one where you would trudge on the mighty Karnak Temple, wade through the royal tombs in the Valley of the Kings, and visit Queen Hatshepsut's breathtaking temple. This particular leg gives travelers an elegant mix of history, culture, and value.

Itinerary

Day 1

Arrival in Cairo

Our Tour guide

will be waiting for you at the arrival hall bearing a welcome sign designed especially for you. From there, he will meet you and take you to your air-conditioned vehicle for an easy transfer to your hotel. Another facet of our Budget Egypt Tours is to provide a very organized start to your Egypt exploration.

Accommodation: Hotel in Cairo (1 night)

Meal: No meals for today.

Day 2

Cairo tour + Overnight train to Aswan

Giza attractions :

Your Egyptologist tour guide will take you to two historic locations in Egypt that will deeply impact visitors as they discover the mysteries of the ancient world. The Egyptian Museum stands as one of the world's top museums because its modern architectural excellence meets timeless Egyptian artifacts. Enter an authentic Egyptian restaurant and try the typical lunch menu. After enjoying your meal, continue your Giza pyramids tour from Cairo at the Pyramids of Giza, which survived as the final Ancient World Wonder.

Look up at the Great Pyramid while learning how experts have kept these structures standing since ancient times. Your Cairo tour to the Giza pyramids ends with a visit to the Great Sphinx, a monumental limestone statue sculpted from a single rock. You will be transported from Giza to the Giza Railway Station in the evening so that you can catch an overnight train to Aswan.

Accommodation: Overnight sleeper train (1 night)

Meals: breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 3

Aswan free day to visit Philae temple & Nubian village

Philae temple :

Spend a free day in Aswan or select optional tours to Philae Temple. Take a boat to Agilkia Island to observe how the Philae temple was relocated there as Lake Nasser's waters rose.

Nubian village :

Visitors can study ancient Egyptian worship because the Isis Temple stands well preserved with divine carvings and beautiful columns. Have a dinner meal at Nubian Village with a local family who will host you with authentic Nubian warmth.

Accommodation: Hotel (1 night)

Meals: breakfast only.

Day 4

Aswan tour to explore Abu Simbel Temples

Abu Simbel Temples :

Enjoy your free day in Aswan with the optional activity of visiting Abu Simbel Temples.

Accommodation: Hotel (1 night)

Meals: breakfast only.

Day 5

Nile Felucca

You will visit the Tomb of the Nobles and choose some food for your journey before boarding your unique ship this morning. Spend your night sleeping under the moonlight on the river. New members of your sailing crew from Nubia will handle food preparation and show you various traditional dances. You will need your sleeping sheet to make sleeping on deck during the night more comfortable because feluccas do not provide much shelter.

Accommodation: Felucca (1 night)

Meals: breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 6

Head to Luxor - Karnak temple

Karnak Temple:

largest religious Karnak Temple complex ever built is the amphitheater of God Amun-Ra. Visitors proceed through the overwhelming Hypostyle Hall, whose 134 columns soar up towards the sky. Massive obelisks, a sacred lake, and carvings reflecting thousands of years of Egyptian history represent an unforgettable aspect of Budget Egypt Tours.

The rest of the day is free to enjoy local teashops or even browse the traditional markets and souvenir shops in Luxor.

Overnight Stay: Hotel in Luxor (1 night)

Meals: Breakfast Only

Optional activities on the following day might be as below:

Luxor Temple:

Discover the immense Luxor Temple with its vastness and gorgeous architecture, and then on to the Luxor Museum to mesmerize you with its beautiful ancient artifacts.

Mummification Museum:

Make sure you visit the Mummification Museum at day's end, where you will learn about the intricate phases of mummification, the people of the land of ancient Egypt, and give it the cultural touch of your Budget Egypt Tours trip.

Day 7

Luxor - Overnight train Valley of the kings & Colossi of memnon

Start your morning by traveling from Luxor into the West Bank area to see ancient Egyptian relics.

Valley of the kings :

Explore the Valley of the Kings to see Book of the Dead scenes and ancient writings in royal tombs of Tutankhamun Ramses II and Seti I.

Colossi of memnon :

For 3400 years, these Colossi of Memnon waited to welcome guests before leading them to the temple of Pharaoh Amenhotep III. You finish your Egyptian journey as you return to Cairo on the train from Luxor to continue your trip ahead. After exploring Luxor attractions, you should select your own activities until you in the evening.

Accommodation: Overnight sleeper train (1 night)

Meals: breakfast and dinner.

Day 8
