Itinerary

Day 1

Arrival in Cairo – Egyptian Civilization Museum & Old Cairo

Welcome to Cairo! Once you land, the guide will seek you out at Cairo Airport, holding up your name so that you can recognize him. Once this little procedure is done, your private tour of Cairo's historical landmarks will commence. Start your Egypt short break with a guided tour in Cairo, visiting the Museum of Egyptian Civilization, the Citadel of Saladin, and the Mosque of Muhammad Ali. End the day in Old Cairo, exploring ancient churches and synagogues before returning to your hotel for a restful night.

Museum of Egyptian Civilization:

The journey begins at the Museum of Egyptian Civilization, with its wide array of artifacts telling the story of Egypt's illustrious past. Royal mummies are there, along with ancient statues and exhibits that trace the story of thousands of years of civilization. This is a must-visit for anyone on a 3-day Cairo tour with the guides.

Saladin Citadel and the Mosque of Muhammad Ali:

The next stop will be the Citadel of Saladin, a mighty fortress sitting atop the Mokattam Hills and built in 1183 AD to protect Cairo. The inside view of the Mosque of Muhammad Ali would take your breath away; splendidly built in alabaster, this mosque was conceived by a Turkish architect, Yusuf Bushnak: an unforgettable moment in your private day tour in Cairo.

Old Cairo:

To wrap up your day, visit Old Cairo, which includes some very important ancient religious monuments. Visit the Abu Serga Church, Hanging Church, and Ben Ezra Synagogue, each with its own remarkable story and heritage.

After the tour, you will be dropped back at the hotel to have some rest in preparation for the next day's adventures.
