Having breakfast, pack your belongings and leave your hotel. A private, air-conditioned vehicle will already be waiting for you to take you to Cairo Airport for your flight to Aswan. Once you land, the cruise you'll be embarking on will be more than welcome for lunch and served by another private transfer which will be done through an air-conditioned vehicle.

Temple of Philae:

Later in the day, you have a chance to visit the Temple of Philae under the guidance of a professional tour guide in your Middle East tours. The location of this temple is quite picturesque as it lies on the island of Isis.

Granite Quarries & Unfinished Obelisk

You then continue to the Granite Quarries and the Unfinished Obelisk. In the evening, dinner will be served at the cruise ship.

Stay overnight in Aswan.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day 4

Temples of Kom Ombo and Edfu

Kom Ombo Temple

The first meal of the day will be served on the boat while you are going to Kom Ombo. When you get to the temple, you will see the peculiar Temple of Kom Ombo that is dedicated to the two gods, Sobek- the god of crocodiles, and Haroeris (Horus the Elder).

Edfu & Temple of Horus:

Afterward, head to Edfu via sailing, where you will have lunch on the boat. Later on, the Temple of Horus-one of the best-preserved temples of Egypt will be opened for you to visit.

Cruise to Esna

As the ship is cruising towards Esna, evening tea will be served to you in the comfort of your cabin. Dinner will be served on board, followed by an overnight stay on your Nile Cruise.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day 5

Luxor Nile Cruise Tours

West Bank of Luxor

Luxor Nile Cruise Tours As the ship continues its journey toward Luxor, you are having breakfast on board. After the arrival, you will take a trip to the West Bank of the Nile and visit such great places as the Valley of the Kings, the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut at El-Deir El-Bahari, and the Colossi of Memnon that are really high.

East Bank of Luxor

Have lunch on the cruise, and then you will go on an exploration of the East Bank, where the great Karnak Temple and the elegant Luxor Temple are located. Treat yourself with sailing afternoon tea.

Dinner will also be served on board.

Stay in Luxor. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner.

Day 6

Nile Cruise–Fly from Luxor to Cairo

Transfer to Cairo

Have breakfast on the boat then leave Nile Cruise. You will be taken to Luxor Airport for your flight to Cairo. When you get to Cairo Airport, our representative will be waiting for you, and he will take you to the hotel for check-in. The evening is free for you to rest and relax after your trip.

Meals: Breakfast.

Day 7

Fly from Cairo to Amman - Hello Jordan!

Flight to Amman

Your next day will start with breakfast followed by a transfer to Cairo International Airport for your flight to Amman, Jordan. After landing at Queen Alia International Airport, a representative from our company will be waiting for you and helping you through the process of customs and immigration. After this, you will be taken to your hotel in Amman for check-in and rest.

Night stay in Amman.

Food: Breakfast.

Day 8

Jerash & Dead Sea Tour

Jerash:

After your morning meal, your Middle East tour guide will take you to Jerash, which is situated in the foothills of the Gilead Mountains. This archaeological site is among the best-preserved examples of Roman architecture that have survived outside of Italy. Walk through the stunning colonnaded streets, visit the magnificent Nymphaeum, and see the grand Temple of Artemis, all of which are the masterpieces of the Roman Empire and give its glory a reflection.

Dead Sea:

you will proceed to the Dead Sea, which is famous all over the world. The Dead Sea is the lowest point on Earth with a very high content of minerals that have therapeutic properties. For centuries, the Dead Sea has been viewed as a natural health and wellness place.

The Dead Sea's mud is believed to be a very effective ingredient for beauty and curing treatments—some even say that its powers were loved by Queen Cleopatra and Queen Sheba. No organisms can survive here because of the extremely high salinity; that is the reason why it is called the "Dead Sea." However, one gets to experience floating effortlessly atop the water which truly is an unforgettable experience. Before heading back to Amman, allow yourself to be pampered with a float, and a mud bath.

Meals: Breakfast.

Day 9

Tour to the Ancient City of Petra

Petra:

You will have about 2.5 hours' drive after your morning meal to the astonishing Rose-Red City of Petra, the most amazing and charming spot of Jordan. The Nabataean Arabs established Petra in the 6th century B. C. and its beauty lies in the great facades that were carved into the tall sandstone cliffs. At the visitor center, a 700-meter walk will take you to the entrance to the Siq, which is a great 1,200-meter-long gorge with very high walls of colorful rocks and a height of more than 80 meters. The beautiful sight of Al-Khazneh (The Treasury), the most well-known monument of Petra, will receive you as you get out of the Siq. The beauty and the mystery surrounding Petra which is one of the New Seven Wonders of the World are just amazing and it will not be easy to forget them.

After the tour around this ancient wonder, you will retrace your steps through the Siq and then drive back to Amman for an overnight stay.

Meals: Breakfast.
