Day 4

Visit Luxor attractions

After breakfast, head to Esna and proceed to Luxor. In Luxor tour, a guide will lead you to some of the most extraordinary ancient sites of Egypt. The journey begins on the West Bank, with a visit to the legendary

Valley of the Kings:

On the list of the world's most famous archaeological sites, the Valley of the Kings served as the ancient royal cemetery for New Kingdom pharaohs of Egypt, including the most well-known, Tutankhamun. With over sixty tombs—many richly decorated and carved deep into the rock with symbolic artwork, hieroglyphs, and secret chambers—this site was designed to guide pharaohs into the afterlife.

Temple of Queen Hatshepsut:

One of the most beautiful and well-preserved ancient temples of Egypt, the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut is situated beautifully against the dramatic cliffs of Deir el-Bahri. Mortuary of the female pharaoh temple was constructed to honor one of Egypt's few female pharaohs. The terraces, statues, and relief carvings evoke wealth under her reign and dedication to the god Amun. As you go through the splendid temple with a guide, you will hear the story of Hatshepsut and how she came to power in a male-dominated realm, which continues to spellbind historians and visitors alike.

Colossi of Memnon:

For more than 3,000 years, the Colossi of Memnon have watched over the gateway to the long-lost mortuary temple of Amenhotep III on the west bank of the Nile near Luxor. Standing about 18 meters (60 feet) high, each statue is carved from a single block of sandstone.

Enjoy lunch in Luxor before being transferred to either the airport or train station for your departure.
