Day 4

West Bank of Luxor – Valley of the Kings & Hatshepsut Temple

Enjoy your final breakfast while still aboard the MS Le Fayen. Afterward, disembark and visit Luxor's West Bank with your Egyptologist guide. Begin with the breathtaking

Valley of the Kings:

On the list of the world's most famous archaeological sites, the Valley of the Kings served as the ancient royal cemetery for New Kingdom pharaohs of Egypt, including the most well-known, Tutankhamun. With over sixty tombs—many richly decorated and carved deep into the rock with symbolic artwork, hieroglyphs, and secret chambers—this site was designed to guide pharaohs into the afterlife.

Temple of Queen Hatshepsut:

Beautifully set against the dramatic cliffs of Deir el-Bahri, the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut is one of the most beautiful and well-preserved ancient Egyptian temples. This mortuary temple was built for one of the very few women to hold the royal title of pharaoh in the land of the Nile. Its terraces, its statues, and its relief carvings speak much of the wealth she enjoyed during her reign and her love for the god Amun. As you walk through the temple with your guide, you will hear the story of Hatshepsut—how she came to power in a male world, and how her memory continues to fascinate historians and tourists.

Colossi of Memnon:

For over 3,000 years, the Colossi of Memnon have watched over what remains of the gateway to the long-lost mortuary temple of Amenhotep III on the west bank of the Nile, close to Luxor. At approximately 18 meters (60 feet) high, each colossus is made of a single block of sandstone.

The last day of your 4-day best Nile cruise from Aswan to Luxor is an excellent way to conclude a journey of history, elegance, and breathtaking landscapes, perfect for those looking for the best Nile River cruise from Aswan to Luxor or a private Nile cruise from Luxor to Aswan as part of their luxury Egypt tour.
