Your guide will meet you at the reception of your hotel to start your Alexandria day tour.

Get ready for an unforgettable Alexandria sightseeing experience, exploring some of the top things to do in Alexandria starting your tour with exploring

Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa:

Catacomb of Kom el Shoqafa is an ancient Roman burial site in Alexandria known for its unique blend of Egyptian, Greek, and Roman architecture. It was started in the 2nd century A.D, and was used to intern the dead for the next 200 years. This was a period in the history of the city of Alexandria when there was a great mixture of different cultures.

Pompey's pillar:

Pompey's pillar is a Roman column in Alexandria and the largest of its type constructed outside of the imperial capitals of Rome and Constantinople. The column was made of Aswan granite. It is about 27 m high.

The Citadel of Qaitbay:

The citadel of Qaitbay was built in 1477 AD by Sultan Al-Ashraf Seif El-Din Qaitbay. The citadel was built on the site of the famous Lighthouse of Alexandria, which was one of the seven wonders of the ancient world, and it's one of the famous Alexandria tourist places.

Roman Amphitheatre:

It is one of the most popular Alexandria highlights. The Roman amphitheaters were widespread during Roman time. This Amphitheatre is the only one that still exists in Egypt. Located at Kom El-Dekkah, named due to many piles of rubble and sand found there. Kom El-Dekka theatre was where important meetings like public assemblies and governmental summits took place. This theatre consists of 13 rows numbered in Roman digits.

The Library of Alexandria:

It is one of the largest libraries in the world and is one of the largest Alexandria sightseeing that you can visit.

The Library of Alexandria is Located on the shore of the Mediterranean Sea.

The library was officially inaugurated in 2002.

It contains books in Arabic, English, and French.
