Petra

Cut into sandstone cliffs more than 2,000 years ago, Petra is considered one of the New Seven Wonders of the World, besides being a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The city itself boasts of ancient architecture and breathtakingly beautiful rock-carved monuments dating back to the 6th century BCE.

The Siq & Royal Tombs & Roman Theater

Upon arrival, enjoy walking through the famed Siq, a narrow natural gorge, until you reach the stunning Treasury, the most photographed and iconic landmark of Petra. Then continue touring the Royal Tombs, Roman Theater, temples, and many more rock-carved facades representing the glory of Nabatean civilization merged with raw nature beauty.

Among the most popular tours from Dahab, this full-day excursion, in particular, offers travelers the now-scarce opportunity to explore one of the world's greatest archaeology sites.
