Itinerary

Day 1

Your Day to Edfu & Kom Ombo

Full Day Luxor Adventure to Edfu and Kom Ombo

Your dedicated guide with deep knowledge of ancient Egypt will meet you at your hotel in Luxor and take you on a memorable journey as part of one of the best Luxor private tours. This full day experience from Luxor to Kom Ombo lets you discover two of the most amazing sites along the Nile the Edfu and Kom Ombo Temples. This private tour of Luxor is a top choice among popular Luxor day trips, offering an intimate and enriching way to explore Egypt's ancient wonders.

Discover the Temple of Edfu:

Start the day with a nice drive of 2 hours along the Nile River to Edfu, where you will get to see the Temple of Horus, which is deemed the most complete and also the best preserved temple in Egypt. This splendid building was erected between 237 and 57 BC during the Ptolemaic period (332–30 BC) and showcases the architectural brilliance of ancient Egyptian civilization. As part of many Luxor private tours, this stop is a highlight on any Luxor Aswan itinerary.

Visit Kom Ombo Temple:

After a journey of about 90 minutes, you'll arrive at Kom Ombo, which is located 70 km south of Edfu. Here, you will have a chance to see the amazing Kom Ombo temple, which is dedicated to the two gods Haroeris (the god with a falcon head) and Sobek (the crocodile god). The temple, built during the Greco Roman period, is famous for its symmetry, its portrayal of the ancient Egyptian calendar, medical instruments, and its many delightful reliefs. This is a key stop on most Edfu and Kom Ombo Temples tours, and a must see for anyone traveling from Luxor to Aswan.

After the temples have been explored, will take you back to your hotel in Luxor bringing a day that was filled with history, culture, and the wonderful sights of the Nile riverside to a close. This event still ranks among the most rewarding experiences in Luxor and Aswan and is ideal for those wishing to have genuine interactions via custom Luxor private tours.
