Itinerary

Day 1

Day 2- Cairo Tour / Overnight Luxor

You will be met at Hurghada Port then transferred to Hurghada Airport for your flight to Cairo. Upon arrival, you are taken to Giza Plateau for the iconic view of Great Pyramids of Giza and Great Sphinx, and visit the Egyptian Museum to see its fabulous collection of ancient antiques.

The Great Pyramids of Giza:

The Great Pyramids of Giza are the largest and most famous pyramids in Egypt, made over 4,500 years ago. Consisting of the pyramids of Khufu, Khafre, and Menkaure, these pyramids are a testament to the sheer skill of engineering possessed and the grandeur demanded by the pharaohs.

The Great Sphinx:

The Great Sphinx is a monumental limestone statue featuring a body said to be modeled on that of a lion and the head of a king. Resting on the Giza Plateau, the Sphinx protects the pyramids and acts as a symbolic representation of the power and wisdom of royal authority.

Egyptian Museum:

The Egyptian Museum in Cairo holds about 250,000 ancient Egyptian artifacts throughout the several millennia of Egyptian history. Among the renowned pieces are Tutankhamun's treasures, such as his gold mask, jewelry, and funerary possessions, all housed in the Egyptian Museum.

Day 2

Day 2- Luxor Tour / Back To Hurghada Port

After breakfast at the hotel early in the morning, start your visit to:

The Valley of the Kings:

The Valley of the Kings is one of the most important highlights of the development of the construction of tomb in Egypt. It was called by the Ancient Egyptians (Ta-Maat) or the place of justice and truth. It is one of the most important attractions in Luxor.

It is a long, narrow defile on the west bank of Luxor, which was part of ancient Thebes. It was the burial site of almost all the pharaohs of the New Kingdom (1550-1080 BC).

Hatshepsut Temple:

The temple of Hatshepsut at El Deir El Bahary is unique among the Egyptian temples. It is built in three terraces to commemorate the coronation of Hatshepsut.

Hatshepsut's famous expedition to the land of Punt (Somalia) is depicted on the second terrace. It is an amazing temple, you will like and enjoy it.

Completing your Luxor day tour, with visiting more iconic landmarks like the Colossi of Memnon as well as the temples of Karnak, the Luxor journey across Nile banks on the West takes place.

Colossi of Memnon:

Among activities at the recent archaeological site include the Colossi of Memnon is two massive statues of Pharaoh Amenhotep III. He built them for centuries. These imposing statues flanked the approach to an enormous temple where the highest point was for photographers and sightseers.

Temple of Karnak:

The Karnak temples constitute the largest religious compound ever built, dedicated to the god Amun, his consort Mut, and their son Khonsu. The temples include avenues of sphinxes leading up to monumental pylon gate and large temple grounds that mirror the unbelievable mix of ancient Egyptian architecture and religious context from different periods.

At the end of the journey, the driver will drive you back to the port of Hurghada, with the shore excursion completed.
